President's Comments: Last month I raved about the success of the AOC/TQOC Conference in Mackay and this month I was just as pleased with the success of our Field Day – all I can say is that in the "Orchid Fraternity" we must be doing something right with so many successes. Thank you to all who made up the numbers, donated food and raffle prizes, and to those who worked on the tickets etc. The ladies in the kitchen deserve accolades from all, for the excellent service they gave on the day. Special thanks also go to those members who opened their shade houses without them there wouldn't be a field day. This month we hold our Annual General Meeting and election of officers but from the nominations received it would seem that you all just want to let the "old mob" carry on. There is room and a dire necessity for nominations off the floor at the AGM so please "put your hands up" as we need the numbers to keep the Society running smoothly. For those of you who know Jean White - a longstanding member - she is now a "patient" at Parklands. We have details if anyone wishes to visit Jean.

After the recent Field Day one of our members was missing a dark grey coloured baking dish but a smaller one of similar colour was available. If you have a dish which seems to have grown, please bring it back to exchange – Secretary Jean would be pleased.

Nearly forgot! Next month's meeting will be our usual annual Christmas luncheon. For those of our members who have attended four or more meetings during the year it is free – others must pay, and the cost is forty dollars. Soft drinks and light ale for sale cheaply. Numbers for catering required this month.

Wal Nicholson

OMISSION: I have erred. Our Patron for the last few years was only too willing to continue as such and gave me her nomination. When handing other nomination slips to the Acting Returning officer I somehow did not include Phyllis's for which I apologise and trust that this will be accepted at the Annual General Meeting. Wal Nicholson

Novice/New Growers Report:- Novice/New Growers Report:- The monthly meeting of the novice/new growers group was held on the 27th September at the Townsville Orchid Society Inc. Hall, Charles Street, Kirwan with 76 members plus 12 visitors in attendance. This has to be record for this group and also it was encouraging to see several older members present for the first time this year. Delia Hobden a well know orchid enthusiast from Ingham was the guest speaker for the afternoon gathering on the subject on growing Phaius Orchids. Delia spoke about her use of the different types of potting media she has tried and the water and fertilising programme she has found to be most suitable to grow and flower these plants. Delia also made mention on how her collection has grown by visiting other Phaius growers around North Queensland to swap or buy her plants. Thank you Delia for a most enjoyable talk and for the time, knowledge and effort you put into this presentation.

Many thanks to all our members who helped in towards our Field Day activities (hall setup & clean up, supplying of food and Multi Raffle Prizes) your presence were greatly appreciated by our society. Our afternoon's activities concluded with a delicious afternoon tea and the drawing of the Multi Raffle. Thanks everybody for your support and we can look forward to see you again at the next meeting on the 24th October.

Ted Boon will be the Guest Speaker next month to talk on Tillandsia Warren Sewell

Cattleya intermedia Graham ex Hook., 1828 Cattleya intermedia is a bifoliate (it has two leaves), intermediate to warm growing epiphyte from the Atlantic coastal forests of Brazil, where it grows near sea level. Plants are found from Rio de Janiero south to Brazil's border with Uruguay, and into that country. These latitudes correspond with the area from Rockhampton south to Coffs Harbour, but Cattleya intermedia grows easily in Townsville. The plants grow in the upper branches of trees in high light conditions, usually in swamps or beside streams, but can also be found on the ground, where sand dunes are covered with trees or brush. The dunes have a layer of organic material which retains water.

Cattleya intermedia was brought from Rio de Janiero in 1824, it bloomed in the Botanical Gardens in Glasgow in 1826 and was described by Hooker in 1828. The flowers were considered of intermediate size compared to the Cattleyas known at the time, hence its name. Because of its wide distribution in South America, it has a large number of colour varieties – over 70 are named, and all are popular. An interesting article on different varieties of Cattleya intermedia can be found at http://www.delfinadearaujo.com/on/on37/Carlos_Gomes/classificacao_variedades_eng.htm

The accompanying photograph shows 4 of the varieties I grow: (from the lowest to the highest) 1. variety Maria Fasciera, 2. (var. amethystina x var. suavissima), 3. var. alba and 4. ("Do Hector" x var. gigantea). The last is not at its best, as it is starting to wilt. It should be noted that, for bench judging, hybrids between different varieties of the same species (such as 2 and 4 above) are considered to be species, not hybrids, and can be placed on the Species table.

Plants should be grown in bright light in pots filled with coarse, fast draining medium, such as Quincan gravel. The roots must dry rapidly after watering. When repotted, plants should be placed in undersized pots which have room for only 1-2 years of growth. Large pots tend to hold water for too long, often leading to root rot. Also, repotting must be done only when new roots are in active growth – if repotted at the wrong time, bifoliate Cattleyas are known to "sulk", and often die. A short winter rest with reduced watering is recommended. Feeding with half-strength fertilizers should be done frequently.

I like Cattleya intermedia, as it has a compact growth habit, it grows easily (if you watch your watering and repotting) and every variety is charming. I recommend it to both seasoned and new growers.

Cat Wanpgara Apple blossom should be.... JKF Apple Blossom

Den Luis Truscott Stainton..... as follows... Den Frasers Blueray Twist (Den Ray's Twist x Kuranda Blue) x Den canaliculatum

Phal Leopard Prince x Phal Mei Dar... sorry cannot give you Mei Prince not appearing on lists in Orchid Wiz.

I have some misgiving on this name... Tangerine is a very large shaped Cattleya which is not present in this hybrid... I suspect it is just Ctt Chit Chat
